			IRAS will provide the details of the change by 19 February 2020.
4.	Increase the number of YAs for which the current year unabsorbed capital allowances (“CA”) and trade losses for a YA (collectively referred to as “qualifying deductions”) may be carried back	Qualifying deductions for a YA may be carried back to offset against the Assessable Income of a taxpayer for the immediate preceding YA, capped at $100,000 of qualifying deductions and subject to conditions.	The carry-back relief scheme will be enhanced for YA2020. Under the enhanced scheme, qualifying deductions for YA2020 may be carried back up to 3 immediate preceding YAs, capped at $100,000 of qualifying deductions and subject to conditions. Taxpayers may elect to carry back to the relevant preceding YAs an estimated amount of qualifying deductions available for YA2020, before the actual filing of their income tax returns for YA2020. IRAS will provide the details of the change by end-March 2020.
5.	Provide an option to accelerate the write-off of the cost of acquiring plant and machinery (“P&M”)	A taxpayer which incurs capital expenditure on the acquisition of P&M for the purposes of its trade, profession or business may claim CA (i.e. write off the cost of acquiring the P&M). CA is allowed under Section 19 of the Income	A taxpayer which incurs capital expenditure on the acquisition of P&M in the basis period for YA2021 (i.e. financial year (“FY”) 2020) will have an option to accelerate the write-off of the cost of

20.	Refine the tax treatment of expenditures funded by capital grants	Singapore does not tax receipts that are capital in nature, so recipients of capital grants from the Government and statutory boards are not subject to tax on the grant amounts received. At the same time, these recipients are able to claim tax deductions or allowances on the corresponding expenditure incurred which are funded by such grants from the Government or statutory boards. Recipients of grants from the Government or statutory boards that are revenue in nature are currently subject to income tax on the grant amount received. At the same time, these recipients are able to claim tax deductions or allowances on the corresponding expenditure incurred which are funded by these grants from the Government or statutory boards.	There should be no double incentivisation of recipients through grants and tax deductions or allowances. For capital grants approved on or after 1 January 2021, recipients will not be allowed to claim tax deductions or allowances on that part of the expenditures that are funded by such grants from the Government or statutory boards.

3.	Allow the concessionary withholding tax rate for non-resident public entertainers (“NRPEs”) to lapse	NRPEs are subject to withholding tax at a rate of 15% on gross income in respect of services performed in Singapore. As a concession, the withholding tax rate of 15% is reduced to 10%. This concession is scheduled to lapse after 31 March 2020.	The concessionary withholding tax rate of 10% will be extended till 31 March 2022. It will then lapse after 31 March 2022. The concessionary withholding tax rate for NRPEs was introduced in 2010 to kick-start Singapore’s push to being a vibrant global city. Over the years, the local sports and entertainment scenes have developed significantly, and government schemes have been introduced to promote the sector.
4.	Allow the Angel Investors Tax Deduction (“AITD”) scheme to lapse	The AITD scheme was introduced in Budget 2010 to stimulate angel investments into Singapore-based startups. Under the scheme, an approved angel investor is granted a tax deduction of 50% of the cost of his qualifying investments, subject to conditions. The scheme is scheduled to lapse after 31 March 2020.	The AITD scheme will lapse after 31 March 2020. This is to maintain the resilience and progressivity of the tax system. With the lapsing of AITD, Singapore-based startups can access funding through other government schemes such as the Startup SG programme (which provides holistic support for startups through co-investments, loans, proof-of-concept grants, mentorship and physical space). Angel investors, whose approved angel investor status commences on or before 31
